FACULTY QUINT
BEATS DORMITORY

Two Good Games of Basketball Played on Y. M. C. A. Floor.

The Dormitory boys were good yesterday evening but the faculty team was just a little better and as a result the faculty won their first game in the "Y" city league. The Dormitory were just a little late in getting started and even at that almost came through with a victory, the final score being 19-16. Both teams played good basketball.

The second game which was no less interesting, ended in a 17-10 victory for the Fairmont Mining Machine team. The East Siders played good basketball and although they have lost two games are a long way from elimination in league honors. GLASSMAKERS WIN
FROM THE MINERS

Stanhagen's Rolling at Y. M. C. A. Approached Sensational.

Just a little late in starting the Monongah Glass team, after losing the first game by 73 pins came to the front and "mowed 'em down" in the Y commercial league yesterday evening. For some reason the Consolidation Coal team weakened as the match continued and dropped the last two games by big scores.

Featuring the bowling yesterday evening was the excellent rolling of Stanhagen who rolled 179 for high game and a total of 414 for three games. The total for three games is the second highest that has been rolled since the league began. Gardner was second with 368 closely followed by Ashcraft and Husted. The score in detail follows:

Thanksgiving Game at Morgantown

MORGANTOWN, Nov. 27. — West Virginia will close the 1917 season with a game at home on Thanksgiving day, being the first to be played on the field since 1913. North Carolina College, the familiar "North Carolina A. & M." team, the name having been recently formally changed, is one of the best teams in the south, some estimate of her strength being obtainable from the fact she beat Davidson College, Davidson beat Auburn 17-7 and in last Saturday tied Ohio State, Western Chapsions by the 0-0 score. West Virginia has lost but one game this year, being to the Washington and Lee by an exceedingly close score. West Virginia's battered and best eleven will have difficulty in winning this final contest. The West Virginia A. & M. game being the only one of importance to be played in the state on the big holiday expected to draw a big crowd and an advance sale of reserved seats which opens Tuesday at noon is expected to be large.

MINUTE MEN OF FOOTBALL—JACK WILCE

By PAUL PURMAN.

Can you win football games by psychology?

Can you make thought waves produce touchdowns and goals?

We don't pretend to know—but here's the story.

In 1916 Ohio State, the baby of the Western Conference, was playing Illinois. In the game which was eventually to give the Buckeye the Big Nine title.

Only a few minutes remained to play. Illinois had scored early and Ohio had just crossed the Illinois goal. The score was 6 to 6 and Chick Harley was changing his wet shoes for dry ones preparatory to trying for goal from a difficult angle.

On the sidelines stood Coach Jack Wilce with an army of breathless, straining subs.

"He is going to kick that goal," said Wilce dramatically. "You must all believe he is. I want everyone of you fellows to concentrate and know he is until the ball goes over the bar."

Then Harley kicked and the ball sailed squarely between the posts. Ohio had won.

That is one side of the most successful young coach in the middle west. He constantly studies the psychology of every situation which comes up in games or in practice.

OUTSIDE OF FOOTBALL HE'S A DOC

Jack Wilce

The other side is that he is a plunger; believes in thoroughness, in extensive preparation and he has absolutely no use for precedents.

His thoroughness is carried on throughout the entire year. He is constantly in touch with his players to see that they stand well in school scholastically, he conducts winter classes in football theory and long sessions of spring practice. He keeps in touch with the college alumni looking for new material. In the winter he spends long hours with a checker board working out new plays for the coming season.

With his men he is a driver. He demands hard work and gets it. He is quick to recognize earnest effort and last year recommended for the Varsity

"O" a man who had not played in nearly enough games to win it.

"Nobody on the squad has worked harder than he has for three years," was Wilce's explanation, and the man got his letter.

Wilce is a Y. M. C. A. man—a man of character and a true sportsman against whom not the slightest insinuation of unfairness has ever been brought by an opponent. At Ohio State they hope he will stay forever, but he may some day give up coaching to take up medicine. He has made it his study ever since taking up coaching at Ohio. He graduated and played football at Wisconsin, where he was an All-Western fullback and a crew man.

ATHLETIC TEST FOR THE SCHOOL BOYS

Badges Will be Presented to Those Who Make Good in Meet.

Announcement has been made of an athletic test to be given the pupils of all the public schools in the city. The badge test which will be in the form of a meet will take place at the 10th street playgrounds at 2:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday, December 4. The test is being planned and will be given under the direction of Herbert E. Moore supervisor of playground work in the city.

Announcement was made of the date yesterday. Immediately the test will be explained to children and the practice will begin, that as many as possible will pass the necessary requirements.

All children of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades are eligible to compete for the athletic badges. The principals of each school will ascertain who and how many from their school will compete. It is estimated that at least one hundred of the graded school pupils will attempt to pass the test and win an athletic badge. The principals of the schools are asked to have all entries in by Friday, November 30.

The order of events will be announced after the number of participants is known. The 60 yard dash will probably be first. Only the first test will be given at the meet which includes the following:

Test for boys: 60 yard dash, 3-35 seconds; chinning, 4 times; broad jump, 5 feet, nine inches; test for girls: basket ball throwing, 2 baskets in 6 trials; Indian club race, 30 seconds; balancing, 22 ft., 2 in.

Those passing the test and winning a badge must pass each of the three events. Failing in either will eliminate the participant from winning.

The badges will be purchased by the board of education and will be awarded the winners at a meeting of all the school children at some later date.

City Buys Record of Underground Work

The city of Fairmont has purchased a hand book showing every water and sewer line and fire plug in the city. The hand book was prepared by Harry Williamson, and is now the property of the city.

The only maps of the city to be used for reference are those now hanging in the office of the Board of Affairs and in the office of State Commissioner A. L. Lehman. The new map divides the city into sections and gives much detailed information not contained in the large wall map.

The addition of each new water line, fire plug, or any other minor change, will be indicated on the map immediately after the change takes place.

First Suggestion List For Men's Merry Christmas

It's time right now to buy Christmas things. Stocks are not large. The last few days will find a rush of holiday trade and few holiday goods. We don't want to alarm you, but six months ago, you never thought of having to hunt all over town for sugar, and then doing without it. So get busy while the clerks are not, and spread your Christmas shopping out over two or three pay days instead of taking it all out of one, and you'll thank Jimmie for having done you a favor.

Here's a list of things we have in stock, and any one of them will suit a man or young fellow who thinks he's a man. Run down over it and write the name of your friends along by the gifts, then come in and do all your Christmas shopping for the men folks at one time. They'll be glad you got their Christmas present here, they nearly all deal here anyhow. Here's the list.

The Cold Wave Sends Men Hurrying for their Winter Overcoats

Overcoats that combine good looks with warmth. If warmth were the only virtue in an overcoat, any old horse-blanket would answer the purpose.

But men now-a-days insist that beauty of fabric, line and finish shall never be sacrificed to the purely utilitarian function of an outer garment.

Comfort, style and quality combined in Hartley Overcoats at Stanbagen came within three pins of the 182 mark yesterday evening. Two splits right through the center of the alley spoiled a record breaking score.

That team of pedagogues looked like a rather husky bunch when they came trotting on the floor yesterday evening. They play just as well as they look and look as if they will have something to say when the loving cup is given away.

Brown, of the Monongah Glass team

Almost broke a record yesterday evening—rolling 56 in his first attempt and coming just ten pins of smashing Dusky's low score of 46.

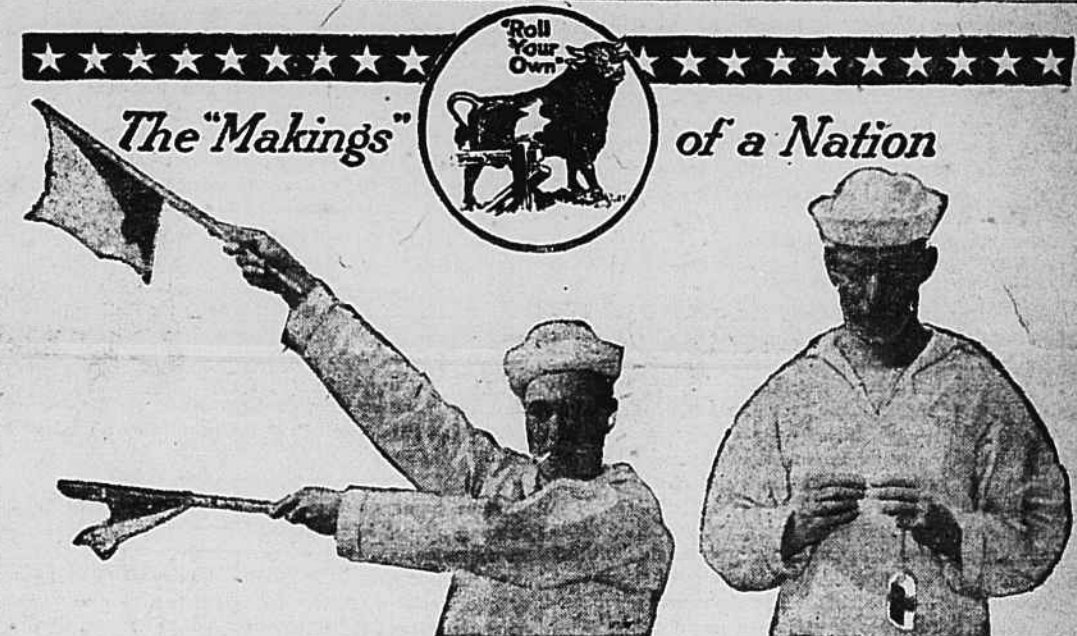

The Mining Machine team had several recruits in their line-up yesterday evening who made a showing well worth speaking of.
